MARGARET MORRISON is the Managing Partner of Accounts and Business Development at EY serving the firm’s top financial services (FS) clients. Since joining EY in 1995, she has held various leadership positions within the firm’s national and global organization. Currently, Margaret is part of the Financial Services Office (FSO) leadership team and a member of the firm’s Global FSO Markets Executive, which helps set the strategy for serving their FS clients worldwide. In this role she is responsible for leading and enabling 6000 Americas FSO professionals to execute a successful go-to-market strategy focused on expanding client relationships, enhancing EY’s brand, and growing the business. Margaret is involved with various EY diversity and inclusiveness initiatives and serves on the board of the Women’s Bond Club. She has also served on the Grants Advisory Committee for several funding periods as well as on the Celebrating Women Breakfast Benefit Committee (2012 and 2013) at the New York Women’s Foundation. Margaret is a David Rockefeller Fellow - Partnership for NYC class of 2013. Prior to joining EY, Margaret worked at Legal Assistants Corp, as Vice President of Sales and Marketing, and spent 12 years in various positions at the Xerox Corporation. Margaret holds an MBA in Marketing, Finance and International Business from Northwestern University’s Kellogg Graduate School of Management, participated in the Strategic Leadership for Partners Program at Harvard (2005), and has her bachelor’s degree in Education from the University of Wisconsin – Madison.
